Cork Kerry Tourism and Fáilte Ireland have approved financial support for this year's Reenascreena Crossroads Arts Festival. The funding, made available under the Festival & Cultural Events Initiative, will reimburse the community for up to 40% of the marketing and programming costs associated with the festival.

A big thank you to Cork Kerry Tourism for their generous offer of support. Here's to making this year's Crossroads Arts Festival the biggest and best yet!

We're putting the finishing touches to the festival programme this week, and will be posting details to the website as soon as they're finalised. We'll also be posting details around the local area and making announcements in local press and on local radio soon.

So remember these dates: Saturday 24th and Sunday 25th June.

Write them down, keep them free, and head for Reenascreena to experience West Cork's rich cultural heritage at its undiluted best!
