

Spam attacks

Recent unsolicited and unsuitable submissions (known as SPAM in internet speak) to the Guestbook and Forums on this site have forced us to disable these facilities until we find a suitable solution. We're looking at several options at the moment and will implement our preferred solution as soon as we can.

In the meantime if you have a story, announcement, poem, article or other submission for the site why not submit it using our "submit story " feature?

Apologies for any inconvenience caused and we'll do our best to resolve the problem as soon as possible.

Many thanks,

The Reenascreena Community Online Editorial Team
