

Public Meeting Tonight!

Contributed by Calvin Jones
Monday, 27 November 2006

There will be a public meeting tonight (27/11) at 9pm in Reenascreena Community Hall to discuss various community projects for the coming year and the availability/options for funding them.

RCAG is keen to get as much community involvement as possible in deciding which projects we should be focusing on, and the direction we want to take in relation to the development/enhancement of Reenascreena and the surrounding area.

What do we want for Reenascreena moving forwards, where should we be focusing our collective energies?
